

September = Fall Book Sale

Fall Book Sale Reminder

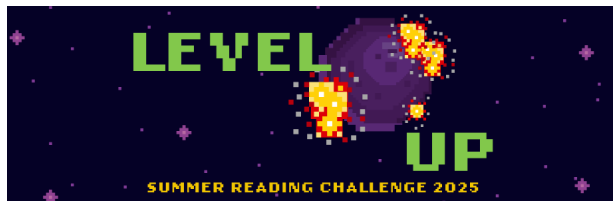

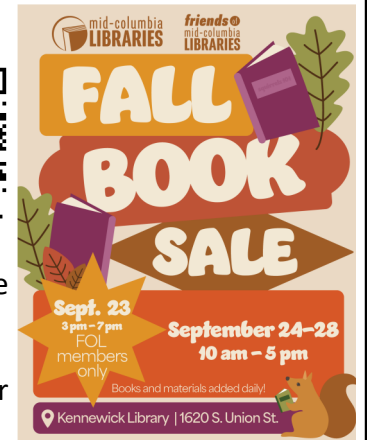

A Few Reminders...

FOL Members shop our sales first. If you'd like to renew your 2025 membership, you can do so using the QR code (right) for our Zeffy platform. Don't worry if you used PayPal to renew your 2025 membership—we have a record of that.

Interested in volunteering at the sale? Call Sarah Wright at 509-430-3544 to inquire about volunteering.

Please hold off on donating your books to the FOL until October 14. We love your donations, but we are busy with book sale preparations and take down until Oct. 14.

Summer Reading Challenge 2025 has officially ended! MCL is thrilled that to have more kids and their families excited about reading than ever. Funds from Friends of Mid-Columbia Libraries provide prizes and books for finishers. Just a few of our many happy prize winners are pictured (left).

Total Participants: 8,714
Total Finishers: 5,316
Total Minutes Read: 2,896,929
Summer Event Attendees: 35,834

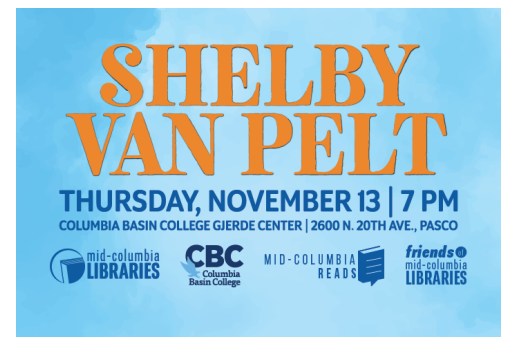

FOL's Community Impact

100% of book sale profits, donations, and membership dues go directly back into the community. This summer we provided over 1,600 books to MCL, who gave them to children at outreach events and story times.

Outreach locations included local school lunch locations, Pasco Farmers Market, Summer's HUB, REACH Museum, Gesa Carousel of Dreams, Inspire Developmental Center, Angel Brook Farm, Benton Franklin Fair & Rodeo's Kiddie Parade (right) and more.
